Copart's acquisition of ACV could help 'make a splash' in commercial consignment, too

The $1.9 billion all-cash deal closed last week, opening a route further into whole-car remarketing

Copart's $1.9 billion all-cash acquisition of ACV Auctions, which closed last week, is a chance to push further into whole-car remarketing, particularly among franchise dealers. Chief executive Jay Adair said shortly after the deal was announced, "I think this opens up the world and our ability to do a lot more vehicles in that space." One analyst sees the commercial consignment market as a second place the combination could make a mark.

ACERTUS

No code. No car.

ACERTified verifies driver identity at the pickup stage of vehicle transport. Your designated release agent and the assigned driver confirm a text code two ways; if it matches, the system greenlights release and both sides get a digital confirmation. A first-of-its-kind safeguard against pickup-stage fraud, from the largest automotive logistics platform in North America.
