WHOLESALE

Copart's acquisition of ACV could help 'make a splash' in commercial consignment, too

The $1.9 billion all-cash deal closed last week, opening a route further into whole-car remarketing

Copart's $1.9 billion all-cash acquisition of ACV Auctions, which closed last week, is a chance to push further into whole-car remarketing, particularly among franchise dealers. Chief executive Jay Adair said shortly after the deal was announced, "I think this opens up the world and our ability to do a lot more vehicles in that space." One analyst sees the commercial consignment market as a second place the combination could make a mark.
